

Not long after, he sought higher office in the Connecticut General Assembly and won his seat in a special election. He also served as chairman of the Lyme Board of Education for several years. Jack was extremely well-respected by his colleagues on both sides of the aisle and was known across the state for his hard work, candor, and exemplary character. I had the chance to see Jack's fine work up close and in person during the time I held the state legislative seat from the town of Vernon from 1987 to 1994. We were from different parties, but that didn't mean a thing in all of our interactions. It was truly an honor to serve with him, and his example is an important one for all of us in public office.

Jack never lost sight of the challenges that Connecticut dairy farmers face. Each morning, before traveling to Hartford, he rose to do the farm chores. He once declared on the floor of the Connecticut General Assembly, "I am a dairy farmer by birth, I am a dairy farmer by education and I am a dairy farmer by choice." Even after leaving the General Assembly in 1992, he continued to advocate for farmers. He was a lifelong member of the Lyme Grange and several other agricultural associations.

In addition to being a great public servant, Jack was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He is survived by his wife Susan, their children Hannah and John, as well as their grandchildren Erica and Lauren. He will be dearly missed by his friends, family, and the Lyme community at large. I ask my colleagues to please rise in recognition of Jack's lifetime of service. May we all look to him as an example of honesty, humility, hard work, and stewardship.

HONORING MR. MIKE SMITH

HON. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 25, 2018

Ms. MICHELLE LUJAN GRISHAM of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate New Mexico native Mike Smith on completing horse racing's Triple Crown earlier this month. Mr. Smith deftly rode his horse Justify to victory in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness Stakes, and Belmont Stakes to become just the twelfth Triple Crown winning jockey. Furthermore, at the age of 52, Mr. Smith is the oldest person to achieve this feat.

Mr. Smith was born in Roswell, New Mexico and spent his childhood in the nearby town of Dexter. Horses were an integral part of life for Mr. Smith, who spent much of his time working with them on his grandparents' farm. Mr. Smith's professional jockeying career began when he was just a teenager and included races at tracks like Ruidoso Downs in Southern New Mexico.

Since the early 1990's, Mr. Smith has cemented himself as one of the top jockeys in the world. His long list of accomplishments includes seven victories in Triple Crown races as well as a record 27 Breeders' Cup wins. His success at these top races has earned Mr. Smith the nickname "Big Money Mike". In recognition of his impressive career, Mr. Smith was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2003.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the state of New Mexico, I want to congratulate Mike Smith on winning the Triple Crown. He has brought our state great pride and we wish him the best of luck in the future.
